

Michael Ward Organisational Coach and Consultant

Michael Ward is a Sydney-based Alliance Partner of Newfield Institute.

Michael has built expertise in the facilitation and coaching of Project Teams based on behavioural and process improvement principles leveraging more than 30 years in the engineering, project management and delivery of major projects.

A qualified Ontological Practitioner, Michael has particular interest in the development and performance of individuals and teams and has facilitated high performance outcomes, primarily with clients in the infrastructure sector.

Michael is a Principal at Alchimie Pty Ltd advising clients in the fields of leadership, collaboration and achieving outstanding outcomes.

Michael is a member of the Executive Committee for the Lean Construction Institute.

Qualifications

- BE Civil Engineering
- Masters of Business Administration
- Vocational Graduate Diploma of Ontological Coaching
- Fellow - Institution of Engineers Australia
- Accredited Practitioner - IWAM (Inventory of Workplace Attitudes and Motivation)

Areas of Expertise

- Organisational and executive coaching
- Project management
- Organisational process design / improvement
- Organisational governance
- Development of high performance teams
- Productivity / performance improvement
- Personal coaching
- Team coaching

Recent Experience

- Alchimie (current)
- Evans & Peck
- John Holland
- Transfield

Contact

Mobile: 0411 127 235

Email: michael@newfieldinstitute.com.au

Web: www.newfieldinstitute.com.au